

of course now I only get the income -- and there's some other little stock but not very much -- to keep up the repairs and pay the taxes and keep everything going. I couldn't do it.

Q 1230 shares of Frederick County Bank stock, that represented the stock in the old bank? A. Yes, sir, the old bank.

Q Closed? A. It was closed, yes, sir.

Q And you are receiving no income?

A No, none; didn't last year and haven't this year.

Q In fact they have changed the name of the bank and incorporated a new bank, isn't that right?

A Yes, they have. I don't know anything was ever done with that stock, because Mr. McCardell told me himself that gave them a good deal of concern, but didn't tell me in what way or what about it. I don't know whether I'll ever get anything out of it or not.

Q Well there's no money in the trust.

A Well what kept me, you see, I had money to pay out, you know. I had this legacy to pay the Cemetery. There was only one debt. Mr. Renn only had one debt and that was $2,000 there in the Citizens National Bank, and that I paid the first of the year, and that $2,000 to the Cemetery, I paid that off, the full amount, out of the little money that was on hand, and there were no other expenses or debts except funeral expenses, and of course that was all paid and cleared up the first of the year, and since that there's been some crops raised but no income you see only just what I get out of my houses and that is not a great deal.

Q Then the money you receive from the sale of this farm will be the only money in the trust, that right?

A Well no, the trust has -- that would be about the only cash money.

Q That is what I am talking about.

A Yes, the only money you see, that will be the sale of this farm, be the only cash money at the present time.

Q (The Court) And the farm was sold for how much?

A $4,000.

Q To be settled for on the first of April?

A Well Mr. DeLauter said it would be the 2nd on account of the 1st
